

Jorge Antonio Olvera Mateos

Intellectual Property Counselor

Querétaro, México

(+52) 442-8-94-84-78 jorgeolveramateos@propiedadintelectual.network

↔ LinkedIn, Threads

Skills

Litigation

Communication skills

Complex problem-solving

Active learning

Analytical thinking

Attention to Detail

Responsiveness

Languages

Spanish

English

French

Hobbies

He likes writing and reading about Poetry, Intellectual History, and Horology. He runs, listens to music, and plays chess in his free time. Now, he is learning German and cardistry.

Profile

As a legal counselor, he is known for his empathetic and client-centered approach, empowering individuals to make informed decisions and achieve their legal objectives. He has successfully navigated the intricacies of intellectual property law, specializing in patents, trademarks, and copyrights.

His legal research and analysis proficiency allowed him to counsel clients comprehensively, ensuring their intellectual property assets were adequately protected and managed. He has developed tailored Intellectual Property strategies for inventors, artists, and businesses, securing patent applications, trademark registrations, and copyright protections.

His strong attention to detail and contract drafting skills have facilitated successful negotiations of licensing agreements and settlements related to Intellectual Property disputes. Moreover, his commitment to social justice, ethical conduct, and continuous professional development reflects his passion for advocating for the rights of individuals and businesses.

Employment History

Executive Director, IP Consultores, Querétaro

February 2020 – Present

As an Executive Director, he has consistently demonstrated an unwavering commitment to providing strategic legal guidance and fostering innovation in intellectual property. Through a comprehensive array of responsibilities, he has contributed significantly to the success of clients and the firm.

Central to his responsibilities has been counseling clients on diverse intellectual property matters. From intricate patent and industrial design issues to trademark and copyright concerns, he has adeptly guided clients through the complexities of intellectual property law, ensuring their rights are protected and potential infringement areas are mitigated. By offering tailored advice and solutions, he has enabled clients to make informed decisions safeguarding their creative assets.

As an Intellectual Property Counselor, he has encompassed a spectrum of responsibilities that blend legal expertise, strategic collaboration, and thought leadership. Through his dedication to protecting clients' intellectual property assets in the field of patents, industrial designs, trademarks, and copyrights, he has upheld the reputation of IP Consultores as a trusted advisor and advocate for intellectual property rights.

Deputy Director of Counseling and Transparency, National Council of Science and Technology, Mexico City

December 2018 – December 2019

As Deputy Director of Counseling and Transparency at the National Council of Science and Technology, he steadfastly committed to fostering a supportive, transparent, and accountable environment for staff and stakeholders. With a multifaceted approach, he led initiatives that improved internal dynamics and strengthened the Council's standing in the wider community.

One of his primary achievements was overseeing and coordinating counseling services within the organization. He strived to create an environment where employees and stakeholders felt comfortable seeking guidance, ensuring their concerns were addressed confidentially and empathetically. Through careful management and strategic planning, he cultivated an atmosphere where individuals could openly discuss challenges and receive the support they need to thrive.

As Deputy Director of Counseling and Transparency, he encompassed a range of responsibilities that spanned from creating a supportive environment to fostering openness and accountability. Through collaborative efforts, strategic planning, and a commitment to ethical practices, he contributed significantly to the growth and well-being of the National Council of Science and Technology while upholding its values in all endeavors.

Paralegal, Civil Legal Firm, Mexico City

January 2017 – October 2018

During his tenure as a Paralegal at a Mexico City-based Civil Legal Firm, he played an integral part in the legal team, contributing extensively to the successful execution of Civil and Family Law cases. Through a comprehensive range of responsibilities, he consistently demonstrated his dedication to supporting attorneys, clients, and the firm.

His role was pivotal in providing foundational support for case preparation and litigation strategies. Conducting in-depth legal research, he ensured that attorneys had the most relevant and current information to bolster their claims and arguments. He played a critical role in shaping successful case outcomes by uncovering vital legal insights.

As a Paralegal, he encompassed diverse responsibilities to support the Civil Legal Firm's commitment to excellence and client satisfaction. He consistently contributed to the firm's reputation as a trusted advocate in Civil and Family Law through meticulous research, empathetic client interaction, and precise document preparation.

Director of the Arbitrary Detention Committee, Executive Commission for Attention to Victims, Mexico City

July 2015 – June 2016

As the Director of the Arbitrary Detention Committee at the Executive Commission for Attention to Victims, he demonstrated unwavering dedication to upholding human rights and advocating for the fair treatment of detainees. Through his leadership and strategic oversight, he played a pivotal role in safeguarding the rights of victims of arbitrary detention and working towards a more just and compassionate society.

At the helm of the Arbitrary Detention Committee, he led a team that was committed to preventing and addressing cases of arbitrary detention. By overseeing daily operations and spearheading strategic initiatives, he ensured that victims' rights were protected and their voices were heard within the judicial system. This role required a delicate balance of empathy, legal understanding, and a steadfast commitment to justice.

As Director of the Arbitrary Detention Committee, he was characterized by unwavering dedication to upholding human rights, advocating for victims, and driving systemic change. Through strategic leadership, collaborative partnerships, and an unwavering commitment to justice, he contributed significantly to the Executive Commission for Attention to Victims and its mission to create a more just and compassionate society for all.

Head of the Department of Economic, Social, Cultural and Environmental Rights Committee, Executive Commission for Attention to Victims, Mexico City

August 2014 — July 2015

In his role as the Head of the Department of the Economic, Social, Cultural, and Environmental Rights Committee at the Executive Commission for Attention to Victims, he was entrusted with a vital mission to champion and uphold the rights of individuals in the realms of economics, social welfare, culture, and the environment. Through a comprehensive array of responsibilities, he was pivotal in ensuring justice and empowerment for vulnerable communities.

His contribution extended to assisting committee members navigating intricate legal issues surrounding economic, social, cultural, and environmental rights. Through extensive research and analysis, he provided essential insights that underpin their legal arguments and policy recommendations. Synthesizing information from diverse sources, he supported the development of strategies that promote equitable rights and address systemic challenges.

As the Head of the Department of the Economic, Social, Cultural, and Environmental Rights Committee, he was marked by a commitment to justice, equity, and the empowerment of vulnerable communities. Through research, collaboration, precision, and dedication, he significantly contributed to the Executive Commission for Attention to Victims and its mission to advocate for and protect the rights of all individuals, ensuring a more just and inclusive society.

Education

Master's Degree in Law, Faculty of Law, National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City

August 2015 — December 2016

The degree was obtained with a dissertation titled "The VICO, SAVIGNY and MAINE's Historicist Conception of Law: Elements of an Intellectual Legal Historiography." This dissertation was defended on November 9th, 2021, and was awarded High Honors.

Specialization in Human Rights Law, Faculty of Law, National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City

January 2012 – May 2013

The degree was obtained with a dissertation titled "Pro Persona Principle and Human Rights Norms: Towards Design of an Application Scheme." This dissertation was defended on September 24th, 2014, and was awarded High Honors.

Bachelor's Degree in Law, Faculty of Law, National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City

August 2005 – May 2010

The degree was obtained with a dissertation titled "The Extension of the Right to Vote in the Mexican Legal System." This dissertation was defended on March 16th, 2011. It was awarded First in the Fifth National Undergraduate and Postgraduate Thesis Contest on the Provisions of the National Legal System."

Internships

Research Assistant, Human Rights University Program, National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City

January 2013 – May 2013

Dedicated and motivated Research Assistant committed to advancing social justice and equality through rigorous research methodologies. He was skilled in data collection, analysis, and collaboration, with a deep understanding of ethical considerations in human rights research.

Analyst Assistant, Federal Competition Commission, Mexico City

June 2010 – December 2010

Results-oriented Analyst Assistant was adept at conducting in-depth research, analyzing market dynamics, and contributing to implementing fair competition policies. He demonstrated the ability to work collaboratively within a regulatory framework to ensure market efficiency and consumer welfare.

Diplomas and Courses

Diploma in Social Research Methodology, Legal Research Institute, National Autonomous University of Mexico

March 2016 – November 2016

Diploma in Political History of Mexico 19th and 20th centuries, National Institute of Historical Studies on the Revolutions of Mexico

May 2007 – October 2007

The Basics of Design Patents, Fish & Richardson, P.C.

March 2023

Evidentiary Extravaganza, Fish & Richardson, P.C.

March 2023

Initiating Trade Secret Litigation, Fish & Richardson, P.C.

February 2023

Federal Circuit Appeals from the PTAB and ITC: Summaries of Key 2022 Decisions, Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox, PLLC

February 2023

The Path to a Patent, United States Patent and Trademark Office

January 2023 – March 2023

Trademark Basics Boot Camp, United States Patent and Trademark Office

January 2023 – February 2023

Bitesize Webinar - Copyright, United Kingdom Intellectual Property Office

November 2022

European Union Trademark in a Nutshell, Academy of the European Union Intellectual Property Office

March 2022

Security Document, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Public Information, and Protection of Personal Data

December 2019

Document Management and File Administration, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Public Information, and Protection of Personal Data

July 2019

Introduction to the Federal Law on Transparency and Access to Public Information, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Public Information, and Protection of Personal Data

May 2019

Challenge Procedure and Plenary Criteria, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Public Information, and Protection of Personal Data

May 2019

Classification of Information and Evidence of Harm, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Public Information, and Protection of Personal Data

April 2019

Introduction to the General Law on Protection of Personal Data in Possession of Obligated Subjects, National Institute of Transparency, Access to Information, and Protection of Personal Data

April 2019

Inequalities in Latin America and the Caribbean: Research, Policies and Management for Social Transformations, UNESCO MOST Program

May 2018 – June 2018

5th Research-Teaching Course for Promoters of the Sustainable Development of a Community or Network of Communities, Institute for Social Research, National University Autonomous of Mexico

December 2017

Oral Adversarial Skill-Building Immersion Seminar, Faculty of Law-National University Autonomous of Mexico, University of San Diego, Justice in Mexico Program and Merida Initiative

April 2016

Adversarial Criminal Justice System, Technical Secretariat of the Coordination Council for the Implementation of the Criminal Justice System, Ministry of the Interior

November 2014 – December 2014

Global Advanced English 1-10, Berlitz

November 2015 – May 2017

French Course, National School of Language, Linguistics and Translation

September 2017 – May 2018

Publications

Mexican Constitutional Theory by FLORES, Imer B. (ed.), Ministry of Culture, National Institute of Historical Studies on the Revolutions of Mexico, Senate of the Republic, Legal Research Institute-National Autonomous University of Mexico

2017

He participated as a research assistant in the compilation of the book.

OLVERA MATEOS, Jorge Antonio, The Mexican Supreme Court (SCJN) and Homophobic Expressions as Discriminatory Manifestations (Part Two), Gender, Academia Network Consulting S. C.

August 2013

OLVERA MATEOS, Jorge Antonio, The Mexican Supreme Court (SCJN) and Homophobic Expressions as Discriminatory Manifestations (Part One), Gender, Academia Network Consulting S.C.

July 2013

Conferences

Open Science, Access to Information, and Personal Data Protection, National Council for Science and Technology, Mexico City

August 2019

Moderator of the Conferences and Dialogues for Science for Mexico.

Awards

Social Service Award "Dr. Gustavo Baz Prada", National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City

November 2017

He received an advisory recognition in this award.

First in the Fifth National Undergraduate and Posgraduate Thesis Contest on the Provisions of the National Legal System, Ministry of the Interior, Mexico City

October 2011

The Bachelor's Degree in Law dissertation "The Extension of the Right to Vote in the Mexican Legal System" was awarded First in the contest.

Extra-curricular activities

Volunteer, Servicios a la Juventud, A.C., Mexico City

January 2011 – March 2011

Volunteer, Servicios a la Juventud, A.C. and UNICEF, Mexico City

October 2008 – February 2009

Volunteer, International AIDS Society, Mexico City

August 2008

Volunteer, Human Rights Center "Fray Francisco de Vitoria O.P., A.C.", Mexico City

May 2008 – October 2008